

LIVE IT OUT!

Living out the Kingship of Christ

Sarah and her husband, Greg, live in Pinehurst, North Carolina. Her husband's role as an Army officer moved her from Texas to Fort Bragg and they have since happily made their home in North Carolina. Sarah is a graduate of Texas A&M University, 2001, and now works in sales. She has an adorable, cuddly boy, Grayson James Martin, whom she smothers with kisses on a daily basis. When not speaking or working, Sarah loves watching Fox News Channel, writing devotions on her blog, date nights with her husband, and rough-housing on the floor with her son!

Sarah's Passions

Passionate about studying the Word of God, Sarah enjoys writing Bible studies and teaching Christian women about how they can lift up Jesus Christ as King over all. It is her greatest desire for Christian women to see that they can live out the Kingship of Christ daily and make their Biblical Worldview a reality. Sarah's messages will always leave you with real, applicable ways to live out the teachings of the Bible and take your faith to the next level. Her energy and spunk will get you fired up about worshiping Jesus Christ, our King!

Topics

A Divine Relationship:

Jesus and His mother, Mary, had a beautiful relationship. This topic looks at their relationship as well as how mothers can develop their own beautifully divine relationships with their own children.

*Perfect for Mother's Groups

Stress Point:

Money. Dating. Family. Friends. Career. Self/Body Image. These are universal stress points that all women deal with. This message takes an edgy and relevant approach to practical ways that women can put Christ in the center of each stress point and lead them to find godly purpose, success and well being.

*Perfect for the Twenty-Something age group

Dwell in His Courts- Psalm 84:

Do you desire a closer relationship with the Lord? He wants you to draw near to Him as you elevate Him to King over all. Sarah will give you practical ways to approach the Throne of the King and dwell in His courts every day.

Culture Wars- Jeremiah 29:4-7:

Christians can make an impact on the world while not letting the world influence us negatively. This topic looks at why we are called by God to be the salt and light of the world. It is important to know how we can be "in the world" and not "of the world."

Transformation for His glorification- Romans 12:2:

Do you have a relationship with Christ but feel stuck in a rut? LIVING OUT life with Christ as King requires us to make an inward and outward transformation that leads us to better glorify Him. Sarah highlights Biblical examples of how those before us lived a Biblical worldview and transformed their life to elevate Christ as King over all.

"Sarah was an inspiring and energetic speaker -- a young woman who is passionate about the Word of God and her calling from the Lord to teach women. Her love for the Lord and her heart for women are very obvious. She is a well-prepared speaker with a sense of humor, who is able to immediately connect with women and keep them interested and involved all the way! She joins in activities and is available if anybody needs to talk or to pray. Our ladies had many positive things to say about each session and are looking forward to the next time they will be able to hear Sarah speak."

— Barb Weber, Women Reaching Women Ministry, Grand Strand Baptist Church Myrtle Beach, SC

"Our recent women's retreat was a mountaintop experience, and Sarah Martin was the icing on the cake. Sarah is a captivating, energetic speaker and teacher with a wonderful ability to unfold the word of God with clarity for real life application. Each session was packed with thought provoking questions and eye opening scripture that kept me hanging on the edge of my seat in anticipation for God's truth and glory to be revealed in a refreshing way."

— Cyndi Garris, Retreat attendee, Grand Strand Baptist Church, Myrtle Beach, SC

"Sarah's wisdom and energy has taken A Woman Inspired Ministry Online Conferences to a whole new level. I appreciated her time and effort to customize her presentation so that it was understood by old and new Christians alike. She was courteous and professional and I especially loved how she was so personable with me and the other A Woman Inspired Conference attendees. I highly recommend her as a speaker. I know we will definitely work together again."

— Amy Bayliss, A Woman Inspired Conference Founder

"I have had the remarkable privilege of knowing Sarah Martin for approximately 3 years. She is an integral part of the Women's Ministries of our church, Snyder Memorial Baptist Church. This young lady is tireless with a passion for the Word seldom seen in people. She is a gifted teacher, a compassionate and caring friend, and an excellent mother. It is with a great deal of enthusiasm I heartily recommend Sarah Martin as a speaker for your next event."

— Louise Godwin, Coordinator, Women's Ministry, Snyder Memorial Baptist Church, Fayetteville, NC

"Sarah Martin has answered God's call to lead women to a closer relationship with Him. Her desire, strong-will, and fervent heart for the Lord continue to move her towards that goal. In listening to her speak, there is no doubt in my mind she is the real deal and wants nothing more than for God to be glorified. She has been a gift to our church in her ministry and service, and she will be a gift to you as well."

— Erica Landry, Worship Leader, Snyder Memorial Baptist Church, Fayetteville, NC

"Wow, if you are seeking a gifted teacher and communicator, who is reflective in her thoughts, engages the audience in learning, funny, and passionate about her relationship with her Lord, then Sarah is the speaker for your event. Sarah introduces God's Word in such way that anyone can understand. Her love to dig deep into the Scriptures is contagious to all who hear. I can say without any hesitation that Sarah is one of the best Bible teachers I know."

— Skip Lloyd, Minister of Education & Spiritual Maturity, Snyder Memorial Baptist Church, Fayetteville, NC
